

Proposed Raleigh Wake Food Policy Council

We, a group of concerned people from the public, private, and nonprofit sectors, believe a Raleigh Wake Food Policy Council could benefit the Wake County community. We have drafted a document describing the purpose and possible structure of such an organization. We would like your feedback on this effort to ensure the inclusion of as many perspectives as possible.

Your thoughtful responses to a few questions by March 18 would be greatly appreciated.

 Required

Full Name *

Organization

Email Address *

Confirm Email Address *

Phone Number *

What type of organization do you represent? *

- City government
- County government
- Non-profit
- Food production
- Food preparation / processing
- Food retail / marketing
- Food distribution /storage
- Advocacy group
- Other:

Do you live or work in Wake County? *

- Live only
- Work only
- Live and work
- Neither live or work

Based on the draft charter, do you believe in the need for such a council? *

1 2 3 4 5

No need for a food policy council Definite need for a food policy council

Based on the draft charter, the level of involvement of local governments in the Raleigh Wake Food Policy Council is: *

- Not enough
- About right
- Too much
- Not sure

Based on the draft charter, the organizational structure of the Raleigh Wake Food Policy Council is: *

- Needs work
- About right
- Not sure

How interested are you in serving on the Raleigh Wake Food Policy Council or its committees? *

- Not interested
- Somewhat interested
- Very interested
- Not sure

What do you like about the proposed Raleigh Wake Food Policy Council?

What suggestions or ideas do you have for the proposed Raleigh Wake Food Policy Council?

Additional Comments?

Submit

Never submit passwords through Google Forms.

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Google.

Report Abuse - Terms of Service - Additional Terms