REFLECT ON RESEARCH

The purpose of this exercise is to consider how research might inform development of council.

Instructions

Get into triads and answer the following questions Prepare to share conclusions with the larger group.

1. What aspects of the research stand out for you as important? Why do you believe they are important?

2. How might this information inform development of a new council or network?

3. What questions does this raise for you about a new council or network?