For more information contact Aaron Newton: ajnewton@cabarruscounty.us

Local Farms, Food and You!

LOCALLY GROWN
CABARRUS COUNTY, NC
SUSTAINABLE SUPERIOR

Join the Cabarrus County Food Policy Council for a fun and free event on April 29 featuring local food and local farmers!

Registration is free!
http://www.cabarrusfpc.org

The Cannon School

Tuesday
April 29
6:00 – 8:00 PM

The Cannon School
5801 Poplar Tent Rd
Concord, NC

Come enjoy tasty food produced by local farmers and join the local food conversation!

Join the Cabarrus County Food Policy Council (CCFPC) for a local food tasting, farmer exhibition, and panel discussion. During the free local foods tasting, area farmers and food producers will set up at tables selling subscriptions to CSA's (Community Supported Agriculture) and farm products. There will also be a panel of Cabarrus County residents involved in the local food system. Join in this exciting discussion with Faith VonCannon (Creekside Farms), Kate Brun (Lucky Leaf Farm), Jennifer Newton (Peachtree Market), Trish Cramer (CCFPC), and Gina Guthrie (Bocce Felice).

CONNECT Our Future

Jared Cates, from the Carolina Farm Stewardship Association, will also present on the recent 'CONNECT Our Future' Regional Food System Assessment and Action Plan.

Farmers! Interested in tabling and connecting with consumers?
Contact Aaron Newton at Ajnewton@cabarruscounty.us or 704-920-2206

This event is associated with 'CONNECT Our Future,' a project of the Centralina Council of Governments and the Catawba Council of Governments and is supported by a substantial U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Sustainable Communities Grant as well as local in-kind public and private matching funds.

Catawba Regional Council of Governments

CCOG Centralina Council of Governments